

My Special Day

Everyone's baptism is different. Some people are baptized when they are very little, but some wait until they are older children or even adults. Connect the dots to make the baptismal font, then color this special scene. Don't forget to draw yourself!

